B. SCHOLARLY AND PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

1. SUMMARY OF PUBLICATIONS AND PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

I have a total of 30 publications (1 book, 4 book chapters and 25 refereed journal articles) of which 40% are Open Access, 54 other publications (3 book reviews, 6 newspaper articles and 45 academic blogs), 4 forthcoming publications, 5 creative/artistic endeavors, and 6 unpublished professional reports (technical reports). One of my forthcoming publications is an academic book "Migrant TikTok: The Struggle for Digital Power" under contract with Fernwood Publishing due to publish in early 2026. As knowledge mobilization is core to my work, I have made 153 public appearances in television, radio and print. In terms of funding, I have received 30 research grants, 3 teaching grants, and 27 awards and scholarships totaling over $8.2 million. Most notable is the $3.17 million New Frontiers in Research Fund grant (Co-PI) that examines climate change adaptation, dispossession and displacement in the Philippines, Bangladesh, and Ghana. Since joining York in 2020, I have been involved in 11 SSHRC grants – I have won and managed one SSHRC Insight Development Grant, two Connection Grants and three Partnership Engagement Grants as PI and one Partnership Grant, one Partnership Development Grant, one Insight Development Grant, and two Connection Grants as collaborator.

D. SERVICE

1. SUMMARY OF SERVICE CONTRIBUTIONS

I am an active member of the university and wider community. I am the Director of the Centre for Refugee Studies. I will be the first woman of colour and immigrant to hold this role in the centre's almost 40-year history. I have participated on faculty, school, or department councils and their subcommittees, unit or faculty academic and administrative committees, governance and activities of Research Centres as well as on University Advisory Committees and Task Forces. Notably, I have been on the executive of the Centre for Refugee Studies as well as the Centre for Research on Latin America and the Caribbean since 2021. In 2023, I was selected by York University's Vice President of Research and Innovation to be one of 27 faculty members to help determine the university's five-year Strategic Research Plan. We participated in an inclusive engagement process that reached out and solicited input from the York community. This was significant for my career as I got to experience strategic planning at one of the highest levels at the university and make a direct impact on research. I have also contributed to many organizations outside the University.
